People of all ages, backgrounds, and stations of life are launching businesses of their own and, in the process, are reshaping the global economy. Entrepreneurs are discovering that the natural advantages resulting from their size—speed, flexibility, sensitivity to customers' needs, creativity, a spirit of innovation, and many others—give them the ability to compete successfully with companies many times their size and with budgets to match. As large companies struggle to survive wrenching changes in competitive forces by downsizing, merging, and restructuring, the unseen army of small businesses continues to flourish and to carry the nation's economy on its back. Entrepreneurs willing to assume the risks of the market to gain its rewards are at the heart of capitalism. These men and women, with their bold entrepreneurial spirits, have led our nation into prosperity throughout history. Entrepreneurship is a significant force throughout the world. Have Your Instructor Standing By

By Matthew England

This is a great book if your just getting into business, however if you already know the basics you may want to try something a little deeper. There are quite a few questions this book just won't answer so make sure you go to class. As a supplement to in class lectures and hands on study you will be able to gain alot from reading this text. It offers alot of valuable information in an easy to understand format. I hope you like reading though because it tends to get a little dry.

Excellent book! I'll be keeping this one!

By ToeKneeAllen

Normally, I sell my textbooks back every year, but this in one that will end up in my permanent collection. Whether you are a student requiring this text or a small/business owner or someone looking to start a business, this book is for you. EXCELLENT MUST HAVE information for the entrepreneur! Many, many highly intelligent and creative people start businesses and they fail not due to a poor idea or lack of ability, but a lack of planning and cohesive strategy. This book will help you lay out a winning plan for your business and mitigate many risks and pitfalls that others have learned the hard way. Save yourself the heartache of failing to plan for your success! A+ recommended for ANY business owner or person with a dream!
